

Common Core 101

For Parents

Warren Hills Cluster School Districts invite you to attend a presentation on the Common Core State Standards.

These districts include:

- Warren Hills Regional
- Franklin
- Mansfield
- Oxford
- Washington Boro
- Washington Township

All New Jersey public schools have been updating their academic standards in English Language Arts and Mathematics since New Jersey adopted the Common Core State Standards in 2010. This presentation will help to explain the origin of the standards and how they are used in schools today.

Presentation by New Jersey School Boards Association
