The following PTA board positions are open for the 2017–2018 school year and will be voted on at the May 16, 2017 General Meeting: Vice President and Treasurer. If you are interested in running for either of these offices, please send your letter of intent to Tracy Padilla at the email below.

Anyone applying must be a PTA member for at least 15 days in order to run for a board position, If you are interested, and are not a member, there's still time—contact Ann Marie Schulte before May 1st and she will assist you with membership. Her contact information is below.

PLEASE CONSIDER STEPPING UP TO RUN FOR A BOARD POSITION. The PTA needs the support of our community to be successful.
