WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP BOARD OF EDUCATION
BOARD MEETING

Regular Meeting

The Washington Township Board of Education meets according to the schedule listed below. These meetings begin at 7:00pm and are held at the Brass Castle School.

Public participation is invited at the regular monthly meetings at the portion of the meeting so indicated in the general agenda. Residents should identify themselves when addressing the Board. The public is reminded that any questions or concerns about personal matters should first be discussed at the building level with the teacher. If the response at that level is not satisfactory, the administration should then be contacted. Personal questions should be presented to the Board only if all other contacts have been unsatisfactory. The public is also reminded that, under the Sunshine Law, certain topics such as matters concerning personnel may not be discussed at the public meeting.

The members of the Washington Township Board of Education are:

Karen Graf, President
Edward Kemp, Vice President
Amie Beyrent
Jasmine Francisco
Jennifer Knittel
Nicholas Riess
Robert Yencha

All meetings are held in the Brass Castle School Library/Media Center.
